

Pace University, Lubin School of Business Going Virtual Program

Join The Pace University, Lubin School of Business Going Virtual Program Advisory Board- Your Next Power Play!

Be a part of Pace University's Going Virtual Program Advisory Board. We hand-pick our board members to ensure varied industry backgrounds, differing points of view, and distinctive leadership qualities, making up a team of accomplished experts who offer innovative advice and dynamic perspectives in their areas of focus. The board works collaboratively to provide constructive feedback and strategic direction, to guide quality improvement and to assess program efficacy.

As a partner of the board, your role is to support our faculty and program managers in delivering relevant offerings and strengthening the fundamental mission of Pace University's Going Virtual Program.

Your Industry Star Shines Bright, Pass On That Knowledge!

We're proud to host Pace University Program Advisory Boards. Interested in serving on one of our boards? We need your expertise in the following area:
Going Virtual (GV)
Design Thinking (DT)
Transformative Leadership (TL)

Discover Your Company's Road to Excellence at Pace University's Lubin School of Business

Grow the learning power at your company with custom experiences designed just for you. Let Pace University provide your executives and professionals with a substantive and transformational skill-set for long-lasting impact on their business performance.

Pace University's custom programs are a proven way to grow leadership, devise new strategies, and build the business acumen your firm needs to excel. We work hand-in-hand with your leadership team to create effective and efficient programs. Custom programs generate ideas, conversations and solutions worth capturing.

-The Benefits-

- Advance your personal knowledge through the program curriculum.
- Network with your peers across various industries.
- Identify and recruit talent.
- Exclusive discounts for in-classroom and online Executive Programs.
- Exclusive discounts for customized corporate training for leaders and work teams.
- Personal branding and promotion.
- Ability to present in-classroom case studies.

-The Responsibilities-

- Attend meetings and other events.
- Be informed about the program, students, curriculum, mentorships, and activities.
- Promote the program to your organization, prospective students and stakeholders in the community.
- Ensure the program is delivering a syllabus that is current, up-to-date, and relevant to business and industry needs.
- Serve as an ambassador and advocate for the program.
- Share with others via social media, communications and press releases.

-The Custom Experience-

- Work with the Pace design team to discover pain points and skill gaps.
- Select customized options that best fit your requirements and budget.
- Make industry-specific changes to existing Pace programs or develop new curriculum designed expressly for your company.